The Prathibhana Kannada Sangha Kannada Club, organized its 18th Annual Kannada Fest (KARUNADA USTAVA) on 15/02/2019 in the Quadrangle at Presidency College. It witnessed enthusiastic student activities, encouraging faculty members and entertaining audience. It commenced at 1:30 PM and ended at 7:00 PM. The program was inaugurated by the all the Head of departments.

The chief guest for the event was Prof. Dr B T Lalitha Naik, famous Kannada Author. She gave an inspirational speech on Kannada and its significance. She also stressed on giving importance and respect to all the other languages. She spoke about Kannada literature losing its value. Hence, she concluded about giving importance and putting forth our Kannada literature to the younger generation. This was followed by Mr. Prathap, young scientist's speech. He expressed his thoughts and his journey towards his success and motivated all the students to work hard. Up next was, Mr. Roopesh Rajanna, State President, Kannada Sevakara Sanga, threw light on the significance of Kannada and also entertained the students by mimicking a couple of Kannada actors. This was taken forth by a famous magician Mr. Shidhar Srivin. He entertained the students with his skills in magic. He also involved a couple of students in executing his magical show. Post this Mr. Naval Kishore showcased a mime with the concept of mother's love and care towards the children. He portrayed the journey of a mother from conceiving her kid until leaving the kid independent to face the real world. The occasion was graced by Mr. Gowtham Iyer (Presidency Alumni), and the director of the film 'Ruthra'.

The students added some festive vibes, staging their cultural talents like Dance, Music, and Acting. The fest concluded with the reverberating beats of the 'Tamte'. The program was a grand success.
